Description

El Aleph is a 39-metre traditional phinisi yacht, handcrafted in Serangan in 2008 and lovingly reimagined by Rascal Voyages in 2025. She accommodates up to eleven guests across five cabins, with generous indoor and outdoor living spaces flowing naturally into an expansive main deck — equally suited to sun-soaked afternoons and candlelit dinners beneath the open sky.

Her 2025 refit breathed fresh life into every corner — lighter teak, curated antiques, and handwoven textures now come together in a look that is at once deeply rooted in Indonesian heritage and unmistakably Rascal: warm, considered, and effortlessly stylish. This is Archipelago Chic at its finest.
