Description

Maraya — meaning “many mirrors” — is a luxury charter yacht of striking presence and generous proportion. She accommodates twelve guests across six elegant staterooms, and offers over 450 square metres of external space spread across five distinct deck areas, each with its own character and purpose.

The master stateroom balcony is a particular highlight — lowered whilst at anchor, it transforms into a completely private outdoor retreat, a secluded sanctuary reserved for the principal guests alone. Throughout the yacht, an abundance of both indoor and outdoor space ensures that every guest finds their own perfect corner in which to escape, unwind, and savour the freedom that only life at sea can offer.
